Do you want to put the “fun” back into your family and parenting? Do you dream of getting your kids to listen the first time you tell them something? Than this course is for you! Participates will learn the “Love and Logic Process” created by Jim and Charles Fay. If you are new to Love and Logic or just need to practice your skills, this course will help you put the “fun” back into parenting. New updated curriculum! Participants will:

- Learn positive parenting skills that bring back the joy in your family life.
- Learn discipline skills that teach kids, in a loving way, responsibility and consequences.
- Learn how to end power struggles with kids and the dreaded “brain drain”.
- Learn how to avoid the frustration cycle of arguing - no more arguing!
- Childcare available upon request.

To register for the course, please mail $20/couple; $15/individual checks made payable to:
Badger Community Education, 220 South Street, Lake Geneva, WI 53147 or contact for credit card.
No confirmation calls or letters are sent – you will be notified by email when check is received.
